

Annual Living Expenses for Households with Income Below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level, By State: Prepared for the Alliance for Home Health Quality and Innovation

December 2014
avalere.com

Average Annual Living Expenses – Alabama

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,786	$8,658	$6,326
Food	$4,072	$2,975	$4,331
Transportation	$2,619	$8,791	$4,808
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,593	$2,313	$1,669
Total	$14,071	$22,737	$17,134

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Alabama

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Alaska

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$9,012	$10,540	$9,417
Food	$2,044	$5,825	$4,197
Transportation	$605	$8,617	$4,605
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,533	$6,290	$3,248
Total	$13,195	$31,272	$21,467

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level in Alaska was $28,700 for a one-person household and $38,760 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Alaska

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level in Alaska was $28,700 for a one-person household and $38,760 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Arizona

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,394	$6,631	$7,316
Food	$2,492	$3,849	$3,366
Transportation	$1,853	$2,753	$2,556
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,323	$2,959	$2,509
Total	$14,063	$16,192	$15,747

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Arizona

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – California

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,444	$9,928	$11,112
Food	$2,352	$4,513	$3,734
Transportation	$1,034	$3,561	$2,504
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,375	$2,897	$2,171
Total	$11,204	$20,899	$19,521

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – California

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Colorado

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,166	$5,494	$7,080
Food	$3,207	$4,845	$4,003
Transportation	$843	$2,677	$1,555
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,627	$2,578	$1,923
Total	$11,843	$15,595	$14,561

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Colorado

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Connecticut

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,729	$10,041	$9,074
Food	$3,099	$5,784	$3,971
Transportation	$1,065	$4,218	$2,077
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,426	$3,734	$2,619
Total	$14,319	$23,777	$17,740

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Connecticut

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Delaware

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$3,847	$3,538
Food	$2,769	$2,825
Transportation	$996	$934
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,836	$2,596
Total	$10,449	$9,894

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level. The survey contained no responses for a two-person elderly household during this timeframe.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Delaware

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users. For Delaware, no respondents provided data for a two-person household.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level. The survey contained no responses for a two-person elderly household during this timeframe.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – District of Columbia

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,313	$9,658	$8,034
Food	$1,821	$2,769	$2,454
Transportation	$748	$4,234	$2,355
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,148	$7,989	$4,994
Total	$12,031	$24,650	$17,837

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – District of Columbia

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Florida

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,706	$10,420	$7,780
Food	$2,212	$5,160	$3,758
Transportation	$1,729	$7,755	$4,435
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,693	$4,230	$2,555
Total	$11,341	$27,564	$18,528

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Florida

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Georgia

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,858	$7,992	$6,734
Food	$2,877	$5,277	$3,986
Transportation	$1,316	$3,468	$2,539
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,738	$2,760	$2,192
Total	$11,789	$19,496	$15,452

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Georgia

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Hawaii

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,837	$5,893	$9,050
Food	$3,312	$3,668	$4,757
Transportation	$959	$3,815	$3,124
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,583	$2,626	$3,280
Total	$14,690	$16,002	$20,211

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level in Hawaii was $26,460 for a one-person household and $35,700 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Hawaii

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level in Hawaii was $26,460 for a one-person household and $35,700 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Idaho

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$3,887	$3,629	$3,947
Food	$2,600	$2,251	$2,404
Transportation	$1,634	$2,304	$2,071
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,558	$2,590	$2,544
Total	$10,679	$10,773	$10,967

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Idaho

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Illinois

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,172	$7,929	$7,904
Food	$2,790	$4,011	$3,447
Transportation	$1,431	$2,857	$2,476
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$3,144	$4,268	$3,376
Total	$14,538	$19,065	$17,203

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Illinois

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Indiana

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,449	$7,364	$6,152
Food	$2,130	$5,183	$3,689
Transportation	$1,070	$7,523	$4,420
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,566	$5,799	$3,932
Total	$9,215	$25,868	$18,193

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Indiana

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Kansas

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,128	$2,894	$9,109
Food	$2,427	$2,574	$3,107
Transportation	$400	$782	$2,097
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,552	$2,270	$1,745
Total	$9,506	$8,520	$16,058

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

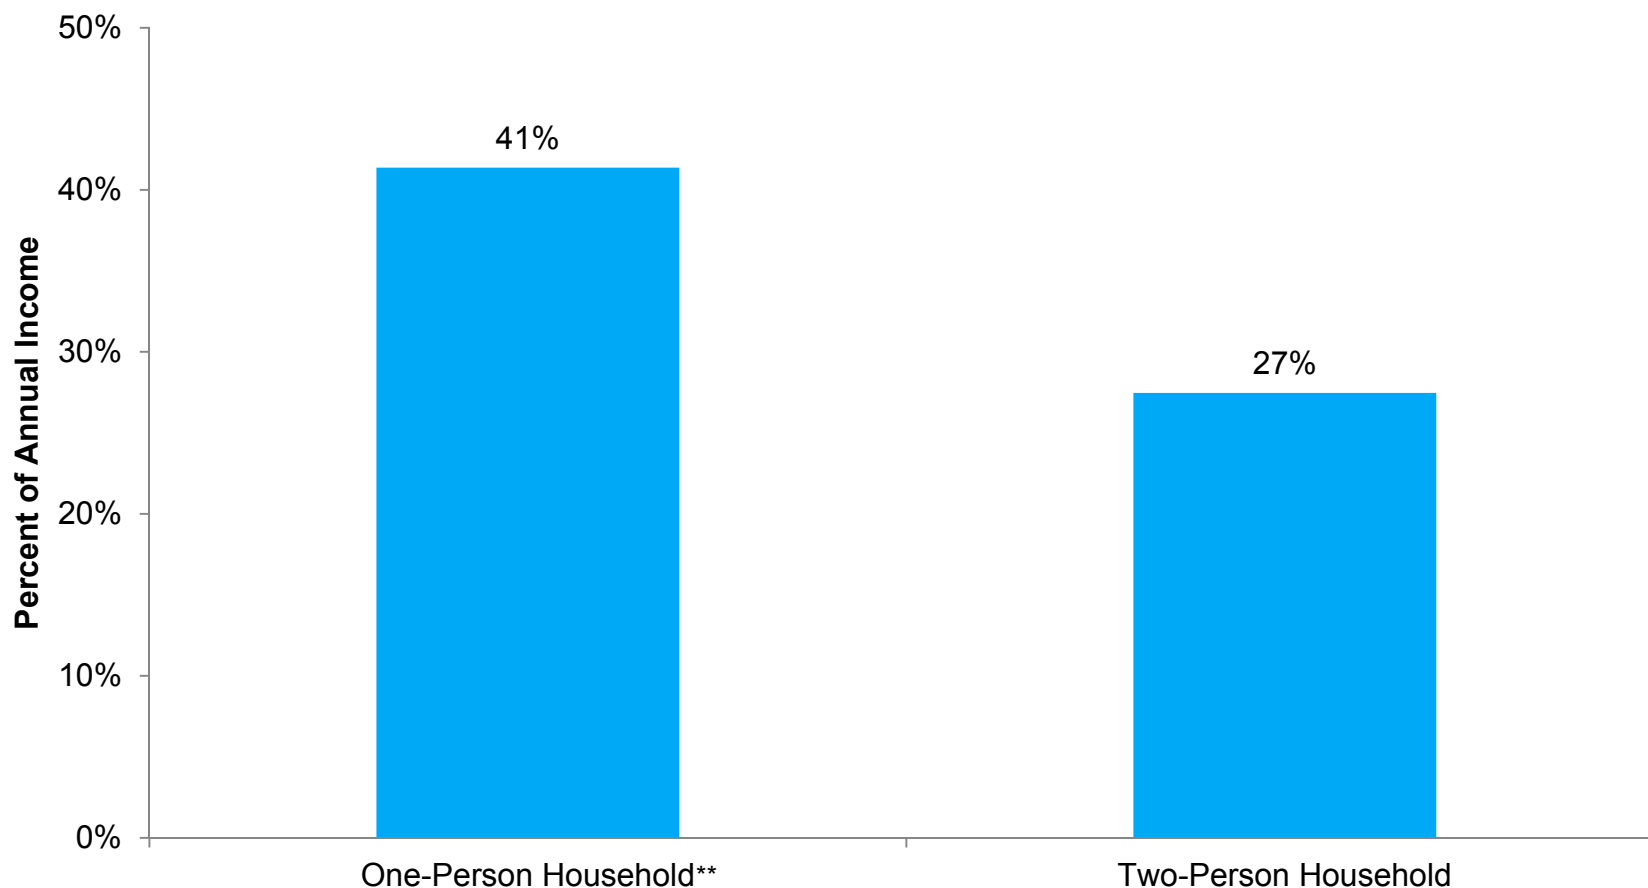

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

 The survey contained only one response for a one-person elderly household during this timeframe.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Kansas

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

 The survey contained only one response for a one-person elderly household during this timeframe.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Kentucky

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,510	$6,381	$5,556
Food	$1,737	$5,112	$3,534
Transportation	$1,219	$4,641	$3,019
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$996	$3,827	$2,463
Total	$8,462	$19,961	$14,572

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Kentucky

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Louisiana

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,282	$5,870	$5,270
Food	$2,796	$3,170	$3,657
Transportation	$1,353	$2,533	$1,987
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,007	$2,790	$2,384
Total	$11,438	$14,364	$13,298

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Louisiana

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Maine

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$3,747	$7,879	$5,789
Food	$2,375	$4,486	$3,398
Transportation	$1,686	$3,733	$2,656
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,932	$2,573	$2,212
Total	$9,741	$18,670	$14,054

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Maine

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Maryland

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,532	$10,417	$8,541
Food	$2,552	$6,027	$4,246
Transportation	$4,661	$6,438	$4,722
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,757	$5,302	$3,025
Total	$15,502	$28,185	$20,533

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Maryland

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Massachusetts

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,143	$12,497	$9,971
Food	$2,433	$5,212	$3,984
Transportation	$1,217	$3,517	$2,926
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,676	$3,074	$2,161
Total	$10,470	$24,300	$19,040

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Massachusetts

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Michigan

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,955	$7,342	$5,625
Food	$2,081	$3,602	$2,726
Transportation	$3,357	$6,533	$4,305
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,032	$3,177	$2,313
Total	$12,425	$20,654	$14,970

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Michigan

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Minnesota

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$1,690	$6,920	$6,729
Food	$844	$4,367	$4,477
Transportation	$0	$2,639	$3,143
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$171	$3,448	$2,847
Total	$2,706	$17,375	$17,196

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

 The survey contained only two responses for a one-person elderly household during this timeframe.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Minnesota

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

 The survey contained only two responses for a one-person elderly household during this timeframe.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Missouri

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$8,126	$4,571	$7,129
Food	$1,969	$2,605	$3,023
Transportation	$679	$1,586	$1,864
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,367	$1,888	$1,915
Total	$12,141	$10,650	$13,932

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Missouri

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Nebraska

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,800	$7,759	$7,219
Food	$2,056	$2,719	$2,267
Transportation	$1,101	$3,757	$2,262
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$3,284	$3,050	$2,860
Total	$13,241	$17,285	$14,608

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Nebraska

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Nevada

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$7,104	$13,377	$9,436
Food	$2,429	$4,058	$3,297
Transportation	$1,595	$2,506	$2,363
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,399	$2,426	$1,809
Total	$12,527	$22,367	$16,905

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Nevada

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New Hampshire

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$11,832	$3,448	$10,200
Food	$2,885	$1,307	$3,004
Transportation	$1,029	$829	$1,121
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$3,681	$0	$5,713
Total	$19,426	$5,585	$20,038

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New Hampshire

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New Jersey

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$8,167	$11,231	$9,221
Food	$2,696	$4,431	$3,292
Transportation	$2,003	$2,942	$2,359
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,963	$6,055	$2,980
Total	$14,829	$24,660	$17,851

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New Jersey

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New York

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$9,834	$12,434	$10,925
Food	$2,822	$5,252	$4,151
Transportation	$1,509	$4,394	$3,054
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,694	$3,976	$2,743
Total	$15,860	$26,055	$20,874

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – New York

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Ohio

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,400	$6,748	$6,636
Food	$2,750	$4,456	$3,583
Transportation	$1,806	$3,383	$2,770
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,281	$4,147	$3,185
Total	$13,236	$18,735	$16,174

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Ohio

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Oregon

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$8,979	$8,143	$8,345
Food	$2,645	$3,613	$3,385
Transportation	$1,724	$2,717	$2,475
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,781	$5,499	$4,192
Total	$16,129	$19,972	$18,397

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Oregon

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Pennsylvania

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,105	$8,348	$7,542
Food	$2,274	$3,894	$3,199
Transportation	$1,858	$4,601	$2,908
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,972	$4,108	$2,798
Total	$12,210	$20,951	$16,447

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Pennsylvania

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – South Carolina

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$5,071	$5,335	$6,344
Food	$2,192	$3,058	$3,245
Transportation	$2,087	$2,381	$2,666
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$3,237	$2,765	$2,716
Total	$12,587	$13,539	$14,972

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – South Carolina

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Tennessee

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,458	$6,648	$6,215
Food	$2,036	$5,192	$4,393
Transportation	$1,157	$4,379	$3,251
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,813	$6,359	$4,806
Total	$10,464	$22,578	$18,665

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Tennessee

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Texas

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,748	$8,433	$7,545
Food	$2,499	$3,481	$3,201
Transportation	$1,873	$3,585	$3,109
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$1,984	$2,726	$2,219
Total	$13,105	$18,225	$16,074

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Texas

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Utah

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,851	$8,616	$5,494
Food	$2,505	$4,545	$3,108
Transportation	$3,682	$929	$2,991
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$4,302	$3,062	$4,405
Total	$15,339	$17,152	$15,998

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Utah

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Virginia

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$4,722	$6,924	$6,544
Food	$2,346	$4,513	$3,733
Transportation	$1,168	$7,641	$3,992
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,226	$2,789	$2,511
Total	$10,462	$21,867	$16,781

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Virginia

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Washington

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$9,659	$10,631	$9,936
Food	$2,425	$6,421	$4,833
Transportation	$1,547	$2,288	$2,554
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$3,769	$4,744	$4,094
Total	$17,399	$24,084	$21,417

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Washington

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Wisconsin

Average Annual Living Expenses for Households with Incomes below 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Living Expense	One-Person Elderly Household	Two-Person Elderly Household	All Elderly Household Sizes
Housing	$6,832	$6,220	$6,641
Food	$1,993	$3,201	$2,270
Transportation	$897	$2,627	$1,252
Health Care (out-of-pocket costs)	$2,392	$3,754	$2,653
Total	$12,114	$15,801	$12,816

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.

Average Annual Living Expenses – Wisconsin

Average Annual Living Expenses, as a Percentage of Income, for One- And Two-Person Households at 200 Percent of the Federal Poverty Level* with at Least One Individual 65 Years or Older, 2013

Note: This analysis includes, but is not limited to, home health users.

Source: Avalere analysis of the 2013 Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey. The analysis includes households with one or more individuals age 65 or older and annual incomes below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.

*In 2013, 200% of the Federal Poverty Level was $22,980 for a one-person household and $31,020 for a two-person household.